Installation instructions and illustrations for luminaires

1

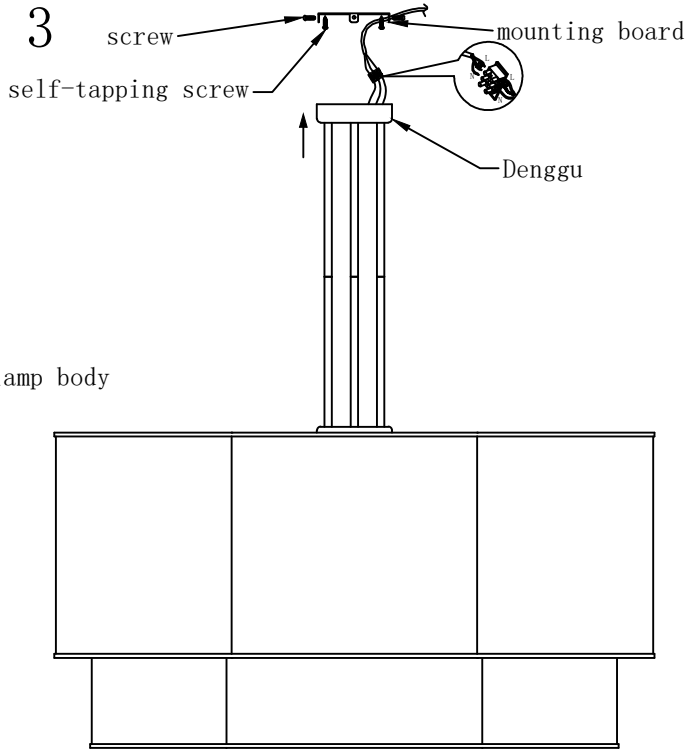

1、Screw the light source onto the lamp body, and use screws to connect the large lamp body to the small lamp body with the connecting rod.

2

2、 The wire passes through the straight rod and the lamp socket, and the straight rod is tightened to the lamp socket and the lamp body.

3

3、Fix the mounting plate to the ceiling with self-tapping screws, and connect the main line; align the ceiling plate with the screw holes on the mounting plate and it with screws.

Attention to maintenance

1: do not install in the wet position, must be installed when the power off, please wear gloves during the installation, do not corrosion material contact with the Lamp 2: in the installation to check to ensure the firmness of the lamp body connectors, the firmness of the embedded parts in the ceiling, the embedded parts and the load-bearing hooks and chains in the ceiling to prevent aging without realizing the accident

3: when installing and cleaning lamps and lanterns, do not rotate the lamp body, so as to avoid the connection screw tooth loosening, cause an accident. When you wipe the crystal, it is recommended to wipe the crystal surface lightly with a soft cloth dipped in diluted clean water (after wiping, you should pay attention to the balance of the lamp body, avoid the tilt of the lamp body, resulting in crystal falling off and lamp body deformation)

4: when wiping the lamp body bracket, with soft cloth do not touch the water paste is alcohol, gasoline, etc. to wipe (wipe if found that the connection button of the crystal rust or crystal lack, should be replaced in time)

5. Do not install a ceiling less than six feet high on the roof.

6. When installing, you should take gloves, and wipe off any hand marks on the hardware to avoid rusting.